

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND
PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

IN RE: INVESTIGATION OF UTILITY MISCONDUCT :
OR FRAUD BY THE NARRAGANSETT ELECTRIC : DOCKET NO. 22-05-EE
COMPANY RELATING TO PAST PAYMENT OF : DOCKET NO. 5189
SHAREHOLDER INCENTIVE :

NOTICE OF PARTICIPATION/INTERVENTION

The Public Utilities Commission (Commission) has opened a new docket to review misconduct or potential fraud by The Narragansett Electric Company relating to the manipulation of the reporting of invoices affecting the calculation of past energy efficiency shareholder incentives.

Existing parties to Docket No. 5189 that intend to participate as parties in Docket No. 22-05-EE do not need to file a motion to intervene but may file a notice of participation with the Commission by July 14, 2022. Any other person, organization, or entity that wants to be a party in Docket No. 22-05-EE may file a motion to intervene consistent with the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (<https://rules.sos.ri.gov/regulations/part/810-00-00-1>) by July 14, 2022. Objections to any notices of participation or motions to intervene must be filed by July 21, 2022. Thereafter, the Commission will convene a procedural conference to set parameters on discovery and establish an initial hearing schedule.

Public docket information can be accessed at:
<http://www.ripuc.ri.gov/eventsactions/docket/22-05-EE.html>.

John R. Harrington, Deputy Chief of Legal Services

July 5, 2022