RE: Docket No. 22-07-GE – The Narragansett Electric Company d/b/a Rhode Island Energy’s Tariff Advice Filing – Bill Credits for Electric and Gas Customers Updated Bill Credit Amounts

Dear Ms. Massaro:

In accordance with the Public Utilities Commission’s (the “Commission”) Order No. 24,533 in the above-referenced docket, The Narragansett Electric Company d/b/a Rhode Island Energy (“Rhode Island Energy” or the “Company”) hereby provides the Commission with the exact amount of the uniform bill credit that it is providing to each electric and gas distribution customer account based on the number of accounts in all rate classes as of November 1, 2022.

For each electric distribution customer account, the amount of the bill credit is $63.92 calculated as follows: $32.5 million / 508,455 accounts = $63.92 per account.

For each gas distribution customer account, the amount of the bill credit is $64.44 calculated as follows: $17.5 million / 271,561 accounts = $64.44 per account.

The Company began to post the bill credits to customer accounts on November 3, 2022, a process that will be performed in batches because of the large volume of accounts. The bill credit will appear on the first bill generated after the credit has posted to the customer’s account.

To conform to the tariff provisions approved by the Commission, the Company has revised the bill message that will appear on customers’ bills to read as follows:

Good news! When Rhode Island Energy became your new energy provider, we agreed to provide a one-time bill credit to all Rhode Island Electric and Gas customers. See page 2 for the credit that is being applied to your account. Learn more RIENERGY.com/credits for further information.

Additional information regarding the customer bill credit can be found on the Company’s website at <https://www.rienergy.com/Credits>.
