PUC 4-1

Request:

When the Company capitalizes labor expense for the purposes of the ISR revenue requirement, does it include employee incentive compensation? Please provide a description of any incentive compensation included as well as any that are excluded.

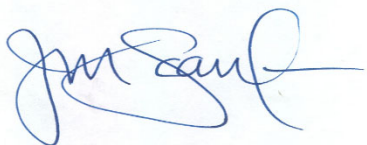

Response:

Employee compensation is a component of the Company's labor expenses. Non-executive cash incentive compensation is added to labor costs throughout the year, including capital jobs. Executive cash incentive compensation and all stock-based compensation awards, executive and non-executive, are not capitalized.

Certificate of Service

I hereby certify that a copy of the cover letter and any materials accompanying this certificate was electronically transmitted to the individuals listed below.

The paper copies of this filing are being hand delivered to the Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission and to the Rhode Island Division of Public Utilities and Carriers.
