The other plan offers 3,000 voice minutes, unlimited text messages per month, and 4.5 GB of data per month at a net cost of $20.00 after the application of Lifeline support. Tribal lifeline customers receive 3,000 voice minutes, unlimited text messages per month, and 6 GB of data per month.⁴ Petitioner stated that it has been allowed ETC status in several other states. Petitioner also indicated that it will not be seeking high cost

² 47 U.S.C. 214(e) imposed statutory responsibility upon the Commission to certify telecommunications service providers as “eligible” to receive funds from the Federal Universal Service Fund.

³ By separate decision, on February 22, 2024, the PUC Commission approved Petitioner’s application for registration to provide telecommunications service in Rhode Island. Order No. 24940 (Feb. 23, 2024);

support.⁵ Petitioner will rely on the National Lifeline Eligibility Verifier and comply with all certification, verification, along with other waste and fraud prevention measures as required by the Federal Communications Commission.⁶ Petitioner asserted that approval of its petition would advance the public interest by increasing competition and access for customers which benefits would outweigh any additional costs on the federal Universal Service Fund.⁷

On January 26, 2024, the Commission issued a Public Notice soliciting comments regarding the petition. No comments were received. On February 14, 2024, the Division of Public Utilities and Carriers (Division) submitted a memorandum. The Division had reviewed the application and had undertaken an independent review of Petitioner's affiliates' industry, consumer, financial and regulatory history. The Division found that the application satisfied the threshold regulatory criteria, and it recommended that the Commission grant the wireless ETC designation.⁸

At an Open Meeting held on February 22, 2024, the Commission approved the petition finding that the petition for ETC designation solely for the purpose of providing Lifeline service to qualifying Rhode Island customers to be proper, in compliance with the federal and state requirements, and in the public interest.

Accordingly, it is hereby
