THE NARRAGANSETT ELECTRIC COMPANY d/b/a RHODE ISLAND ENERGY TARIFF ADVICE TO AMEND THE NET METERING PROVISION PROPOSAL TO INCORPORATE 2023 LEGISLATIVE CHANGES	Docket No. 24-10-EL

REVITY ENERGY LLC’S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO INTERVENE PURSUANT TO RULE 1.14 OF THE RHODE ISLAND PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

Revity Energy LLC (“Revity”), by and through undersigned counsel, hereby files this Motion to Intervene in the above-captioned proceeding pursuant to Rule 1.14 of the Rhode Island Utilities Commission (RIPUC) Rules of Practice and Procedure:

1. Revity is a Rhode Island-based, foreign limited liability company in the business of utility-scale photovoltaic solar energy system development. Revity has successfully developed over 158 megawatts, direct current (MWDC) of solar capacity in Rhode Island and Massachusetts and have another 37.6 MWDC of solar capacity in various stages of construction and development in Rhode Island.

2. Rule 1.14(B) of the RIPUC Rules of Practice and Procedure provides that “any person claiming a right to intervene or an interest of such nature that intervention is necessary or appropriate may intervene in any proceeding before the Commission” which right or interest includes “[a]n interest which may be directly affected and which is not adequately represented by existing parties and as to which movants may be bound by the Commission’s action in the proceeding” and “[a]ny other interest of such nature that movant’s participation may be bound by the Commission’s action in the proceeding” and “[a]ny other interest of such nature that movant’s participation may be in the public interest.”

3. The Company's March 1, 2024 Tariff Advice to Amend the Net Metering Provision Proposal to Incorporate 2023 Legislative Changes proposes amendments to the Net Metering Tariff (R.I.P.U.C. No. 2268) to reflect the legislative changes made by H 5853 and S 0684 to R.I. Gen. Laws § 39-26.4-1, et seq.

4. The Company's Tariff Advice proposes changes that impact the regulatory regime governing Revity's operations and, therefore, Revity has a significant interest in the proceedings in this docket matter.

5. Pursuant to Rule 1.16(B) of the RIPUC Rules of Practice and Procedure, "[t]he movant shall make a good faith effort to determine whether a motion will be opposed." Undersigned counsel spoke to the Company's counsel on April 5, 2024 and the Company's counsel confirmed that the Company would not oppose this Motion.
