PUC 3-1

Request:

On page 5 of the Company's April 29, 2026 memorandum of law, the Company states that it has spent about $170,000 on the Green Button Connect functionality. Please explain whether the Company has paused spending on that functionality following the Commission's Open Meeting decision to narrow the scope of the evidentiary hearing in this docket, and if not, is there any reason why the Company is unable to pause spending?

Response:

No, the Company has not paused spending on the Green Button Connect functionality following the Commission's Open Meeting decision on March 4, 2026, to narrow the scope of the evidentiary hearing in this docket.

As stated in the memorandum of law, the Company has spent approximately $170,000, which is the majority of the capital implementation costs for the Green Button Connect ("GBC") functionality. The Company has remaining contractual milestone payments totaling approximately $33,000 related to the implementation of the functionality, which are due to be paid to the Company's vendor at the end of May.

The Company also has incurred approximately $24,000 in Operations and Maintenance ("O&M") costs to date for implementation of the GBC functionality, which are separate from the $170,000 and do not apply towards the cost cap established by the Commission in Docket No. 22-49-EL. These O&M expenses relate to business process development, marketing, and internal training and development. The Company has an additional $34,500 in forecasted O&M costs. This includes $31,000 in vendor payments for testing and change management milestones, which will be paid in May and June respectively. The Company could pause the development of additional marketing materials which is forecasted to be $3,500.
