Supplemental
PUC 2014-13

Request:

Please provide an aging of accounts receivable, including customer counts for each gas and electric customer class.

Response:

Please see Attachment PUC 2014-13 Supp., which provides an aging of accounts receivable, including customer counts, broken down by the residential rate classes and the non-residential customer class.

The information reflected in Attachment PUC 2014-13 Supp. reflects only those accounts having a balance due at October 31, 2014. Therefore, any account that has a zero balance is not reflected in the customer count shown.

Request:

For each natural gas customer class, please set forth:

- a. the number of accounts,
- b. number of accounts in arrears,
- c. the average age of the arrearage,
- d. the total arrearage amount for that customer class by dollar amount and percentage,
- e. and for non-residential accounts, the number and dollar amount attributable to governmental entities.

Response:

Please see Attachment PUC 2014-14 Supp., which provides the requested information for each of the Company's four residential rate classes as follows: the number of accounts, the number of those accounts in arrears, the average age of that arrearage, the total arrearage amount for each customer rate by dollar amount and percentage, and the number and dollar amount attributable to governmental entities.

The Company's previously filed response indicated the total number of gas accounts by customer class that had arrears. The Company had excluded the number of accounts having current accounts receivable.

The information requested in "e" was included in the previously filed response.
