In re: your letter dated October 21, 2004/Tray Hollow Road

Dear Mrs. Wilson:

I appreciate your letter dated October 21, 2004. Thank you.

I would like to amend my petition as it relates to the Narragansett Electric Company's ("Narragansett") position that I must pay for the extension of power lines on a public road.

Please amend my petition to include the following:

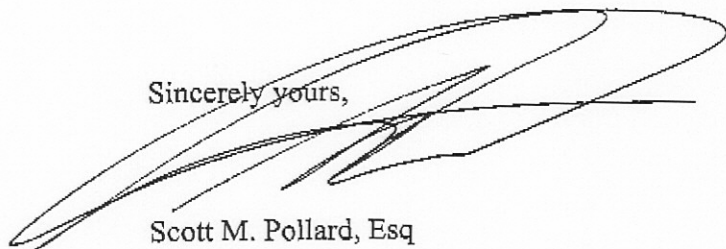

1. Policy B seeks to take private property ($13,000.00 +) for public use (power on a public road) and is thus, on its face unconstitutional as a violation of Article 1, Section 16.
2. Policy B seeks to place a burden of the people of the state (power on a public road) on a single property owner for the "good of the whole" and as such, is on its face unconstitutional as a violation of Article 1, Section 2
3. Policy B is unjust, unreasonable and illegal as discriminatory by including a charge to an individual of over $13,000.00 dollars for extending overhead distribution lines on a town road where if it was a private road the charge would be $3,500.00 +/- dollars less. (Conversation with Narragansett Employee.) (See R.I.G.L. § 39-2-3).
4. Policy B is unjust, unreasonable and illegal as preferential as the extension of overhead distribution lines on town roads has not been applied equally and evenly to all individuals seeking such services from said. (Conversations with a Tray Hollow Rd Neighbors and a Narragansett employee).
5. Policy B is illegal, unjust, unreasonable, insufficient, preferential, and unjustly discriminatory as it seeks to charge to an individual of over $13,000.00 dollars for extending overhead distribution lines on a town road where it is not specifically given the authority to do so, as they are in the case of tree trimming and blasting.

(See policy B (3)).

Lastly, as new information has come to my attention, I would like to withdraw my concern that there may exist a breach of the statutory requirement for an "independent and impartial" body without prejudicing my ability to raise said concerns at a later date.

Thank you for your time and please feel free to phone me at your convenience to discuss these matters further. My phone number at work is 401-490-2915.

Sincerely yours,
