d. No formal assessment of this program has been performed.

Although the costs of the two consumer advocate positions were not specifically addressed in the negotiated cost of service settlement, the Company still believes it is beneficial for customers to add these positions. However, the Company recognizes that this would be a change from current practices, with potential additional costs being included in future rate cases associated with the positions. Thus, before the Company adds the positions, the Company would welcome some indication or signal from the Commission that the Commission supports the addition of these employees. If the Company receives such a positive indication, the Company will commit to adding the positions, assuming the Amended Settlement Agreement is approved. The Company makes this commitment without any adjustment to the settled cost of service. The Company proposes to initially fill one position until such time as the work load results in the need to hire a second resource.
