1.0 Authority

These Rules and Regulations are promulgated pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-35-1 et seq. and R.I. Gen. Laws § 39-2-5(9)(i).

2.0 Background

2.1 On February 8, 1996, the Congress of the United States passed the Telecommunications Act of 1996, P.L. 104-104, 110 Stat. 56, codified in 47 U.S.C. §§ 151 - 760 ("Act"). The Act imposed new statutory responsibilities upon the Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission ("Commission"), including the responsibility to certify telecommunications, service providers as "eligible" to receive funds from the federal Universal Service Fund (47 U.S.C. Sec. 214(e)) and certain Low Income Programs that are set forth under federal law and programs related to the Federal Poverty Guidelines (“FPG”).

2.2 On April 29, 2004, the FCC issued an Order applicable to all ETCs requiring certification and subsequent verification of customers eligible for Link-Up and Lifeline discounts. The Order also required ETCs in non-default states, such as Rhode Island, to follow that state’s certification and verification procedures. (18 FCC Rcd 8302 (2004)).

2.3 On February 6, 2012, the FCC released an Order adopting new rules regarding the Universal Service Fund (77 Fed. Reg. 12952 (2012) (“Lifeline Reform Order”) which, among other reforms, set minimum eligibility standards for program participants, minimum certification procedures for ETCs and minimum annual verification procedures for ETCs. While the Commission finds the Rules that were adopted by the FCC in the Lifeline Reform Order are far-reaching, nothing in the Order removed the Commission’s authority to certify telecommunications providers as eligible to receive payments from the Universal Service Fund.

2.4 As a result of the Lifeline Reform Order, the Commission finds it necessary to promulgate these Rules and Regulations in order to enable the state to participate in the Universal Service/Lifeline Program.

2.5 All ETCs certified by the Commission shall comply with the FCC’s Universal Service Rules codified at 47 C.F.R. Part 54 in addition to these Regulations.
