

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS
PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

IN RE: INTERSTATE NAVIGATION COMPANY :
GENERAL RATE FILING : DOCKET NO. 4373

ERRATA ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 1.28(a) of the Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission's ("Commission") Rules of Practice and Procedure, the Commission through this notice of erratum corrects "clerical mistakes" contained in Commission Order No. 22402, previously issued in this docket, on May 5, 2016.

Page 2, the last line of the first full paragraph, stated:

Second, the parties agreed to reduce the passenger and vehicle base rates by applying funds from the reserve account to offset the $1.50 per gallon. In the future, once the funds in the reserve account are depleted, Interstate may again charge the $1.50 per gallon or an amount agreed to by the parties.

Page 2, the last line of the first full paragraph, is hereby corrected to the following:

Second, the parties agreed to reduce the passenger and vehicle base rates by applying funds from the reserve account to cover fuel costs that exceed $1.50 per gallon. In the future, once the reserve is depleted, Interstate may again collect a fuel surcharge using the $1.50 per gallon base price of fuel or an amount agreed to by the parties.

Accordingly, it is (22427) ORDERED:

That the corrections described herein are adopted by the Commission and shall constitute permanent amendments to Order 22402 issued in Docket 4373.

EFFECTIVE AT WARWICK, RHODE ISLAND, ON MAY 5, 2016. DATED JUNE 3, 2016.
