Dear Luly Massaro,

We submit these two individuals, Frank Epps and Russell Maymon, for membership on the stakeholder committee for PUC Docket 4600. Please consider their nominations with the following pertinent information:

- 1.) Energy Development Partners, LLC, (EDP) a Rhode Island based renewable energy developer and project investor, nominates two candidates from our firm; Frank Epps, Managing Director and Russell Maymon, Director of Project Development, of EDP Energy Development Partners for stakeholder representation on Docket 4600. Together, Mr. Epps and Mr. Maymon would represent the interest and concerns of the energy development community throughout Rhode Island and New England.
- 2.) Franks Epps is an owner and Managing Director of EDP. He an active renewable energy development company located in Rhode Island, has over 10 years of direct experience in the renewable energy industry. He is an active voice for the renewable energy community in Rhode Island working on several boards and committees currently that are engaged in analyzing the renewable energy movement here in RI and its affect on our electrical grid system. He has intervned and testified on behalf of EDP at the RI-PUC on Docket 4568. Mr. Maymon has worked directly in solar energy development and construction in New England for the past 7 years. Mr. Maymon directs EDP's project development efforts and is well versed in current RI legislation and regulatory affairs.
- 3) EDP has over 5MW's of installed solar installations operating in Rhode Island under the 2011-2014 Distributive Energy Standard Contract Act and is constructing and developing numerous solar projects in the state. Our project pipeline includes COE awards from the RI Renewable Energy Growth Program and pubic entity third party financing agreements and net metered PPA's under RI General Laws Title 39 Section 26.4

4.) The interest of EDP and the renewable energy development community will be uniquely represented by Mr. Epps and Mr. Maymon, considering their past experiences in this sector and their combined commitment and dedication to furthering the use of renewable and sustainable energy sources.

Thank you for your consideration, we look forward to your decision regarding this application.

Kind regards,

Russell Maymon
