Re: Dockets 5061 and 5062 – Plan Comparison Chart

Dear Ms. Massaro:

Consistent with the request of Commission staff on September 28, 2020, Good Energy has prepared the attached chart that provides a comparison of how the Providence and South Kingstown Aggregation Plans differ from the previously filed Central Falls and Barrington Aggregation Plans. An editable Word Document version is also attached to the electronic filing.

Thank you for your attention to this submission. If there any questions, please contact me at 401-758-7288.

Sincerely,

James G. Rhodes
Counsel for Good Energy, L.P.

The following chart is intended to quickly communicate how the Community Choice Electricity Aggregation programs differ from each other. As the City of Central Falls was the first to be filed with the Commission, it will be used as a baseline for comparison. Each subsequent program will include how it may have altered some aspect of its program function from the previously filed plans.

Municipality	Org. Structure	Supply Offerings	Education and Outreach
Central Falls	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. City Council - Empowered to approve plan, delegate authority to sign Electricity Services Agreement, and make program amendments.</li> <li>2. Mayor - Holds delegated authority to execute plan. Directed to convene advisory committee to provide oversight and work with consultant to day-to-day management. Required to provide, at a minimum, annual reports to Council on program operations.</li> <li>3. Consultant - Conducting bidding process. Execute public education and opt-out plan. Direct contact with National Grid. Day-to-day management of program.</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Standard Product - Also referred to as "Local Green." Program will purchase additional voluntary RECS expected to be equal to 10% of the electricity used by consumers using this product. This will be the default supply option for Central Falls accounts.</li> <li>2. Basic Product - The product is comparable to Standard Offer or Last Resort service and includes only mandatory RECs to meet the RES standard. Central Falls consumers will have to actively select this product.</li> <li>3. Local Green 100% - For consumers opting this product, the program shall purchase additional, voluntary RECs equal to 100% of their electricity usage. Central Falls consumers will have to actively select this product.</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Will utilize Pawtucket Times as the newspaper of record.</li> <li>2. Will communicate with additional print outlets with circulation within the community.</li> <li>3. Will work with Providence/New Bedford broadcast media markets to generate news coverage.</li> <li>4. City Facebook: @CityOfCentralFallsRi</li> <li>5. City Twitter: @CentralFalls_RI</li> <li>6. Will conduct outreach with George Wiley Center and Center for Justice.</li> <li>7. Outreach to the local business community will be coordinated through the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and Northern Rhode Island Chamber of Commerce.</li> </ol>

Municipality	Org. Structure	Supply Offerings	Education and Outreach
Barrington - Changes in comparison to Central Falls.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Barrington's Town Council exercises the analogous authority as Central Falls City Council.</li> <li>2. Barrington's Town Manager has analogous responsibility as the Central Falls Mayor. The Manager will rely on existing staff and town commissions, rather than convening an advisory Committee as in Central Falls.</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Barrington is offering all the same products as Central Falls and one additional product.</li> <li>2. Local Green 50% - For consumers opting this product, the program shall purchase additional, voluntary RECs expected to be equal to 50% of their electricity usage. Barrington consumers will have to actively select this product.</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Barrington will utilize the Barrington Times as its newspaper of record.</li> <li>2. Facebook: @barringtonri</li> <li>3. Twitter: @RI_Barrington</li> <li>4. Communication with local businesses will be coordinated through the Barrington Business Association.</li> </ol>

Providence	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. City Council shall exercise authority analogous to Central Falls City Council and Barrington Town Council.</li> <li>2. The Council specifically delegated authority for direct management and oversight of the program to the Office of Sustainability.</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Providence is offering the same supply options as Barrington: (a) Standard Product, (b) Basic Product, (c) Local Green 50%, and (d) Local Green 100%</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Providence Journal shall serve as the newspaper of record.</li> <li>2. Social media handles to be used: (a) Mayor’s twitter, (b) Mayor’s Instagram, (c) Office of Sustainability Facebook, (d) Office of Sustainability Twitter</li> <li>3. City website, Mayor’s newsletter, Sustainability Department newsletter will also be utilized.</li> <li>4. Page 22 of the plan highlights currently enumerated groups and neighborhood associations, though this list is likely to be expanded as outreach begins.</li> <li>5. Coordination will also happen with the Environmental and Sustainability Task Force, and the program will incorporate their ongoing feedback and recommendations.</li> </ol>
